

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 15 March 1967

STAT 1. [ ] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security
STAT Subcommittee staff, requested the [ ] STAT With information supplied by [ ] of WH, Mr. Sourwine was advised that the DOB was 27 March 1892.

STAT 2. [ ] Spoke with [ ] DO, concerning
STAT congressmen representing Dallas as background in connection with a claim, STAT by a former, unwitting, proprietary employee, that the proprietary is STAT interfering with his efforts to compete against it in obtaining a Government STAT contract. The former employee said he would seek the help of his congressman on this. [ ] said the proprietary has not been mentioned in the recent exposes, that Agency connection is not at issue, and that he feels nothing will come of this. Mr. Houston was advised.

STAT 3. [ ] Miss Laser, in the office of Representative
STAT Samuel Friedel (D., Md.), called to ask if the Agency had published a study STAT on mainland China. I informed her that she probably has in mind the STAT two volume study prepared by the Joint Economic Committee and suggested STAT she get in touch with them. She thanked me for this information.

STAT 4. [ ] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security
STAT Subcommittee staff, called and said Senators Eastland, Thurmond, and STAT possibly Hruska, would like to have a briefing on Cuban infiltration of Latin STAT America. Sourwine would like to have himself, Frank Schroeder, and STAT Ben Mandel also in attendance. Invitations would be issued to the entire STAT membership of the subcommittee, but probably only the three would attend.
STAT The briefing would be in a closed session. The Senators desire the briefing STAT in view of conflicting testimony received from witnesses to date in order to STAT determine the future thrust of their hearings. I told Sourwine I thought we STAT might be able to do something for him, but would first have to check and STAT then report back.

STAT 5. [ ] Talked to [ ] who was referred STAT to the Agency by Speaker McCormack's office. [ ] wished advice concerning STAT his future activities in certain Arab countries. See memorandum for the STAT record.